

Regarding the NAB's petition 04-160, it seems impossible to me that the FCC would preclude new technologies from broadcasting information that older technologies are free to broadcast.